

Respond to the following two prompts. Type your responses using correct MLA formatting as learned through the OWL Purdue website in this class. Use separate paper for each response and staple them together.

Part I

After viewing Baz Luhrmann's 1996 film conception of Romeo & Juliet, compare and contrast his work with that of William Shakespeare's. (You may use Franco Zeffirelli's 1968 film version as a reference in conjunction with Shakespeare's play.) Look for similarities and differences in plot, setting, characters, conflict, and more. Write three paragraphs describing your findings.

Part II

Answer one of the following essential questions from our unit on Romeo & Juliet. Use examples from the text and your own personal experiences to write three paragraphs comparing/contrasting your perspective on the issue with William Shakespeare's.

1. What defines love?
2. What is the difference between love and infatuation?
3. How do family relationships work?
4. What roles do civil authority, parental authority, and religious authority play in our lives?
5. What are effective ways to resolve conflict?
