

	Exceptional Work (A)	Well Done (B)	Acceptable (C)	Room for Improvement (D)	Much Improvement is Needed (F)
Required Elements/ Cohesiveness	The student created a product that surpassed the requirements on the original assignment sheet. The final product clearly adds to the one act play and helps to make the one act play more successful.	The student created a product that meets the requirements on the original assignment sheet. The final product clearly adds to the one act play and helps to make the one act play more successful.	The student created a product that meets the requirements on the original assignment sheet. The final product clearly adds to the one act play and does not detract from the play.	The student created a product does not meet the requirements on the original assignment sheet. The final product does not add to the play.	The final product needs a good deal of improvement. It does not meet the original criteria and detracts from the play.
Creativity, Neatness	Individual approaches the project with a great deal of care and creativity. It is clear that much work went into the final product.	Individual approaches the project with a great deal of care and creativity. It is clear that a fair amount of work went into the final product.	Some care and creativity is evident in the creation of the final individual product. There are aspects that could be improved.	More care and creativity is needed. Some attempt was made to complete the project, but more work is needed,	Much more work is necessary. The product demonstrates little creativity or care.
Honest Individual Reflection	Student is honest in his/her reflection, thoughtfully determining the strengths and weaknesses of the individual project, Much depth of thought evident,	Student is honest in his/her reflection, thoughtfully determining the strengths and weaknesses of the individual project.	Student is honest in his/her reflection, determining the strengths and weaknesses of the individual project.	Student is honest in his/her reflection, but the reflection is limited and does not reflect much depth of thought.	Reflection is extremely limited or inaccurate.

Group Points _____/40

Individual points _____/30

Total _____/70

Comments: