The Story:

Everyone was excited as the graduates of 3045 were dismissed from the ceremony. They all went to an after celebration party at Adolf Izan's a tall, skinny, blond haired, blue eyed kid. A graduate named Dimitri Repins was offended by the behavior of his colleagues. What offended him so much was that Adolf had been making fun of Dimitri's heritage. Dimitri was a foreign exchange student from Russia. He was darker with different eyes. Adolf was racist and only believed that true Americans should be in this country. Soon, a fight broke out. Brutal punches and kicks hit the two of them. They were each bleeding badly. Each of them were determined to win the fight. Adolf hammered Dimitri to the ground. Somehow, Dimitri managed to get back to his car. Dimitri couldn't stand the thought of losing, so he gave up his life to the river.

High School Graduation Gone Wrong

It was an ordinary May day, but for 237 kids it is the start of a new beginning. Tori had been waiting for this day since she started kindergarten. She was so excited to be graduating high school and going to Iowa State University. She had the perfect dress for the after party. It was black and had white polka dots with a pink bow. Tori woke up got her hair done, got her fake tan like usual, and she got her nails done. It was going to be amazing! She was the most popular girl in school, and had won homecoming queen and prom queen. Now she was going into the big bad world.

Tori went to the school at 6:01; fashionably late. She took the chair that was pink and had a diamond encrusted T. Her name was called she went up, got her diploma and was ready to P.A.R.T.Y!

She got to the hotel her party was at at exactly 7:00. Soon after all of the other newly graduates joined her. Then, they sat down for a nice meal. After eating they went to the dance floor and started dancing like it was the last night of their lives, and for them it was. As it got later the party kept getting better.

Suddenly it got quiet at the front entrance, then the eating area, and lastly the dance floor. A lady that looked about 93 had an extremely vicious look on her face. Next she pulled out a fork and walked right up to Tori and stabbed her eyeballs out, everyone was so scared they started running. Then the little old kook said, " Don't bother my dears, I already have all exits locked, and if one of you pushes any doors open you will explode into nothing but ashes!"

They started to really panic now. There were people crying and one person even started throwing himself into a wall. All of a sudden there was a strange smell of gasoline. Then they heard a little tchhh! And the hotel was engulfed by flames.

Finally the fire trucks, cops, and ambulances showed up. And one cop went a little to close to the door. Boom! The building had another explosion, the graduates that thought that it would be the best night of their life thought wrong. All of them were...dead! Except for! Except for the little old kook.

Mwahhaha!
The end!
